this collection of signs and symptoms, the "withdrawal" or "abstinence" syndrome, was viewed as the result of the development of physical dependence on opiates the organisation tasked with implementing Pakistan's drug law and coordinating drug investigations abroad is the anti narcotics force (ANF), established in 1995